The Onda Harris Membership Retention Awards

Onda Harris became a member in 1963 of the Crawfordsville local. She had been local president twice, district director, and in 1978 state president.

The Onda Harris Awards were designed to award locals who maintain current members each year.

Bronze Award - Presented to all locals that retained 85-89% of current members.
Silver Award - Presented to all locals that retained 90-94% of current members.
Gold Award - Presented to all locals that retained 95% or higher of current members.
Diamond Award - Presented to all locals that retained 100% of current members.
